FRANKFURTERS PLANNED IT

Braintrust Making America Communistic

NEW DEAL "Emergencies" Deliberately Planned to Destroy Republic

In the chaos of contradictory ideological welter; in the hysteria of propaganda hypnosis and fear mongering, it behooves us to keep a cool head and not sympathize with either war parties, and especially with none of the fear mongers.

The spectacle in Europe where Hitler is "breaking" his solemn pacts with Roosevelt's bosom friend and "poor, aggressed" Joe Stalin, should put every intelligent American on the guard. When propaganda is at work to sway sympathies against "treacherous Finland" who is "aggressing" its democratic & peaceful neighbor; when the same British-Jewish propaganda presses one to imagine that it is a crime for Latvia, Lithuania and Esthonia to revolt against its loving Lord Joe so that the funds of these countries are released to Joe by his friend Franklin to fight the "rebels"; when the class hatred preached by the same Franklin in the U. S. against the "economic royalists" and the support given the crummies, who are yet on full pay of the federal government, to plan more and better emergencies and execute them; when it becomes "unpatriotic" to stand for America first and not for the crummies, the Frankfurters and the British first, last and all the time; then a re-orientation of values and a survey of what is actually going on is in order.

Which One Is the Betrayer of His People?

While Roosevelt is accusing Hitler of treachery in making war against Franklin's pal Joe, one must bear in mind that it is "criminal" for Hitler to take other people's territory before the British and their allies occupy it, but it is perfectly "natural" for England to take Syria and Damascus before Hitler gets there. While it is criminal for Hitler to break covenants its is perfectly O. K. for Roosevelt to relegate the Constitution to the horse and buggy age and break every promise and pledge he ever made to the people of the U. S.

The difference between these two pledge breakers is that Hitler follows the line laid down in "Mein Kampf" while Roosevelt follows the line laid down in the "forged" Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Read both expositions and text books of the National Socialism in Europe and the International Socialism of the Protocols and you will breathe easier and get out of your confusion. The battle is on between the two. It is not a battle which involves any of the principles germain to American tradition of unalienable individual rights. It is a war between two types of tyrannies. The National Socialism vs. the International Socialism, or Communism, or Zionism. Like AFL vs. CIO.

The Nazis have copied every device of the crummies and of the international bankers. They chased the Jewish bankers out but they did not change the Jewish banker's system, on the contrary, they expanded it to its conclusion, which means that whereas in the "democracies" the banksters become the owners of industries and lands, by foreclosures and stock manipulations, the Nazi party leaders took over the banks and have in their turn united both state banking and state control of all valuables in industry and real estate in the hands of the Nazi party leaders. When the German soldiers return from the war they will discover that they control nothing and can live only by slaving on the terms of the Nazi party leaders. What they will do about it is to be seen.

NEW DEAL "Planned It That Way"

The Frankfurters in the U. S. are the intellectual, high class exponents, instructors and Jewish party leaders for international communism. In order to enthrone the treacherous system upon a people, the nation had to be sabotaged from within. This was easily done after the international banksters took over control, through the Federal Reserve Banks, of the whole banking system in the U. S.

One must realize the difference between the honest American banker and the Jewish international banker, as well as his Gentile associates in robbing the world, like the J. P. Morgan outfit. We are being told that we must destroy the Nazi banking and barter system to protect "free trade". We never had free trade, it was always hampered by tarriffs for the profit of the banksters and other exploiters. But, the international crowd had it so arranged that not a ton of goods could be shipped in trade without the banksters getting a rake-off in the "financing" of the transaction. This rake-off is cut out by the barter method and the blocked money system. And to give the bankster crowd back their rake-off we are told we must fight Hitler's banking and trading system, annihilate every living German.

Honest American Banking

But we have honest bankers in the U. S. who conduct, and conducted banking in the past, on the basis of service to depositors and industry, instead of the Jewish usury and the crummies' international sabotage basis. The native American banking attitude is that banks are the bookkeepers of the nation. You work and earn your money, deposit it, draw interest and whenever you want it you can control your deposit and its accrued interest. It never dwindles, it always increases. It is not used to destroy you, it is there to protect you.

Treasury Against the People

But today international banking has taken over control of the native bankers through the Federal Reserve system. The directors of the system dictate. The small bankers obey or go to the wall. The people are the least consideration. And the U. S. treasury headed by Henry the Morgue is preparing and executing the economic assassination of the American independent citizen, businessman, farmer and banker. After they slay them, Henry lays out the remains to public view in the morgue.

The International Bankers have taken refuge in the U. S. after they unloaded their gold and silver on the treasury at fancy prices, still own a mortgage on the gold because they were paid in I. O. U.s and they hold the billions of bonds, guaranteed by that gold. The people pay in taxes for the bonds, donate them to the banksters and pay them interest for permission to print their own bonds and donate them to the banksters. The huge debt now is destroying every independent vestige of American economic and political liberty. The real American bankers realize it and are warning you.

War Tax Peril To Capitalism Seen by Banker

ESTES PARK, Colo., President Emmett F. Connely of the Investment Bankers Association of America said that emergency economic measures necessitated by the European war must not become permanent in the United States and warned that taxes must not be increased to the point of preventing saving.

"Capitalism will survive this war if there is a will among the American people that it should," Connely, Detroit investment banker, told the opening assembly of the citizens conference on government management. The conference is sponsored by Denver University and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Warns of Evils

Connely said he recognized that war, requiring "wasteful production for destructive purposes," makes necessary unusual economic techniques.

If the emergency expedients of war are recognized as temporary, Connely continued, "then when our present difficulties are over, we shall be in a position to cut away the false growth and re-establish in all its strength the main stem."

If, however, it is assumed that these emergency measures will continue after the war is over, Connely declared, "then two wars are being fought simultaneously; the war against the enemy and the war against the American people.

"Under those circumstances, every emergency measure becomes an act of revolution designed to curb and thwart and enslave the American people in the exercise of their political and economic rights."

Concedes Tax Necessity

He conceded that taxpayers must assume a heavy burden to build national defense, but added:

"If the cost of living and taxes combine to leave the people without savings, then the private possesson of liquid wealth will cease.

"The vast masses of the people, forced to spend their full earnings, forced even to use their accumulative savings and life insurance policies to meet taxes, will have nothing to invest in growing enterprise."

Lindbergh will be heard over K G B Tuesday 8:30 pm. "de Aryan Comments" has been transfered to Wednesday 7:15 pm, this week only. Next week at its regular hour of Tuesday 8:30 pm.

In Memoriam

Carl Heilbron

Services for Carl Heilbron, 60, civic leader, were held in the Bradley-Woolman St. Cecelia chapel Wednesday. Dr. Frank Lowe officiated. Representatives of more than 20 fraternal and civic organizations were present.

The crowd exceeded the capacity of the chapel. Burial followed in Greenwood Memorial park. Mr. Heilbron died in Santa Barbara the previous Sunday. He was a native of Sacramento.

Arthur Aylesburg, accompanied by Miss Lillie High on the organ, sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "A Prayer Perfect". More than 250 floral pieces were banked around the casket.

'Whole Life A Sermon'

"The whole life of Carl Heilbron was a sermon," Dr. Lowe said, "a sermon more eloquent of Christian service than a sermon in words could possibly be. He was the kind of American that America needs, a citizen who lived to serve his country and his community."

Always cheerful, broadminded, throughout the ups and downs in his own business life as well as the community life, Carl Heilbron kept a serene countenance and had a word of cheer and encouragement. His friends remember him by it.

YE HEROES

Come on ye fallen heroes
Come on ye soldiers proud!
This is the day of judgment
A voice announces loud.

"Who told you—Fight each other—
Kill women, children, too.
The loving voice of mother,
Or Satan's nasty crew?"

They bow their heads and tremble,
Cast bashful down their eyes.
Their heroism shattered,
They dare not utter lies.

And rueful comes the answer:
" 'T was none but cowardice
That prompted all our actions
And let us stray from bliss."

And solemn sounds the verdict:
"Return ye now to earth,
Repairing all your damage,
To paradise give birth."

—Otto Schkoelziger.

Courage Appreciated

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

May I thank you for publishing excerpts from the valedictory address I delivered in Ford Bowl at commencement exercises for Hoover high school.

It is indeed a pleasure to read your newspaper, The Broom, and I want you to know that I am one young American who admires a man like you who has the courage to print the truth, and to fight for his principles. So few people in these days of doubt and fear, retain the capacity to think clearly, and even fewer people have the intellectual fortitude to "stand up" for what they know to be right.

To all young people like myself who will soon be forced out into the world of reality, I recommend as a vigorous, courageous and valuable periodical, your newspaper The Broom. If more Americans possessed the courage to fight for the true ideals of America for which you have so fearlessly struggled, there would be less danger of our being trampled under the yoke of dictatorship. I am proud to say to all those who criticize you that "Mr. de Aryan is a man of high principles and ideals. Whether or not we agree with him, we all should admire his courage and honesty." I sincerely recommend The Broom to all my young friends.

Ha-ha-ha, Roosevelt Blames Chaos on Contempt of Law

"Ha, ha, ha ! . . . . I committed enough illegal acts as assistant Secretary of the Navy to send me to the penitentiary for 999 years . . . . but we declared war and that made it right . . . "

NEW YORK,—President Roosevelt said the failure of men and nations to observe the maxim, "Obedience to law is liberty", accounts for the "tragedy and chaos which today threaten all that we love."

The president made his observation in a letted to Chester W. Cuthell president of the Columbia university law school class of 1907, of which Roosevelt was a member. He expressed his thanks to his former classmates for a portrait of him which they presented to the university.

Declared a legal paper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second-class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Of Whom Were These Things Said ?

One writer said: "Perhaps the record of no stateman in history offers as many illogical, inconsistent, and contradictory, and yet such inflexible faith in his own capacity for leadership as Mr. ———. Another: "The people had occasion to observe that Mr. —— was inclined to trickery and the oblique approach; that he would give largess out of the public purse to buy and organize mendicant or otherwise dependent vote - - - that he viewed with jovial tolerance the exploitation of public trust for private profit?" and yet another: "The words of his mouth were smoother than butter but war was in his heart; his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords?"—Herald, Hot Springs.

Why Africa ?

Daily it becomes clear why so many Army camps are built in the South and in locations where the climate and the soil approximate those of some parts of Africa. The boys in North Carolina, Florida and some other Southern camps are battling with either sand or mud, or both, and in the summer time they will get plenty of heat, too.

Last October 19th a Portuguese broadcast, heard in London and re-broadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation, said that the Government in Washintgon had promised the British 60 divisions of troops—about 720,000 men— for service in Africa. Lying in Hampton Roads, and other harbors there are now Army troop transports to carry $250,000 men at a time.

Paul Mallon, November 6, 1940, writing from Washington, said:

"Next big struggle of the war will be for Africa—the whole of it—and that is where the British will want us to come in."

The U. S. Army has not over three divisions of well-trained men, so to send recruits to Africa will be ugly slaughter. Germany has a total of 260 divisions trained to perfection.

And why Africa? The story would make a book, but in brief the international Jewish Bankers own all the gold and diamond mines on that continent. American blood must be spilled to salvage these interests of the Financial Parasites.

Everyone can understand now why that Senate propagandist, Senator Pepper, goes into a dither every few days and demands that the United States seize Dakar on the west coast of Africa.

That is why, too, even if England goes down within a few weeks—which was predicted as possible by the "Washington Merry-Go-Round" of June 9th—some of the war lords in London will retire to Ottawa, Canada, and demand that war must go on; for as most everyone remembers, Churchill about a year ago told how the British would carry on "until the New World comes to our aid."

While thinking of Africa, don't forget Palestine, and the Dead Sea, where there is said to be some trillion and a quarter dollars's worth of commercial minerals—owned by the same interests that own the gold and diamond mines in Africa.—Weekly Roll Call.

Hitler vs. Communism

Editor:

Well, it seems the U. S. of Soviet Russia, not U. S. A., will bear the British Empire on its shoulders. International communism will bombard, instead of boring into, National Socialism. And what in the name of democracy will the Dies committe do about that? Our "Me-too", Winston, policy would seem to require that we ask Earl Browder to come back. Better, I think, would be to send Lord Halifax packing after him and close the British consulates. Then America might clean up its yard and raise—spinach.

Rather interesting is the similarity in first names of England's Sir Safford Cripps, credited with inciting Russia to war against Germany, and the Sir Stratford Canning, who egged the Sultan of Turkey into the Crimean war, when Russia, Turkey, Prussia and Austria were all satisfied with terms of peace. Our idol empire has not lost its skill in "Divide-and-rule"-Britannia tactics. England sacrificed 26,873 British and over 90,000 Russians in the Crimean war. I am sorry for the Bolsheviks, but can't help rejoicing that "The Yanks are not Coming".

Sincerely,
MARGARET E. LAWRANCE,

Churchill, What He Wrote About Himself

Editor Boise Valley Herald:

Is Churchill a murderer? Seems hard to believe; but lets see what he himself has to say about it. Now that the President has committed our country to partnership with Churchill, we should come to know better the ideals and the past records of this partner who is to help our President carry the four "freedoms?" throughout the world. He is painted as a devoted lover of liberty and democracy, yet he has written many books telling of his fiendish acts on many of his "head hunting" expeditions.

Fought Against U. S. A.

He joined the Fourth Hussars and went with the Spanish Army to Cuba in 1895. We are taught in American history that we fought the Spanish American war to free Cuba "from the tyrants", however, Mr. Churchill was fighting for the "democratic" methods of Spanish rule. Churchill wrote in his book, "A Roving Commission", page 80, "We know nothing of the qualities either of our friends or foes". Then why did he enlist to cross the ocean to be with the Spanish army? He answers that question on page 77 of the same book. "How we wondered whether our chance would ever come to fight over again and again in the agreeable atmosphere of the after dinner mess table?"

The minds of this generation Churchills, exhausted, brutalized, and bored by war, may not understand the delicious yet tremulous sensations with which a young British officer approaches for the first time an actual theatre of operations.

Fight for what? For the "delicious yet tremulous" sensation of killing American boys. Just to kill.

"Very Jolly" to Kill and Maim

Two years later he joined the 31st Punjab Infantry and the Indian population was given a good lesson in English democracy? before firing squads. He is so proud of that adventure that he discusses it with great emotion in his books. The following year he served with General Lockhart in the TIRAH Expeditionary force in another attempt to spread justice and liberty by murdering and looting the Indian subjects of the Empire. He wrote on page 132 of the book, "A lot of people were killed and others were wounded and hopped around for the rest of their lives and it was all very exciting and, for those who did not get killed or hurt, very jolly."

Not satisfied with spreading his views to Cuba and India, he enlisted with Kitchener when he started on the reconquest of the Egyptian Sudan in 1898. Here is a story of one wounded Egyptian as related on page 193 of the book, "A Roving Commission"; "I shot him at less than a yard. He fell on the sand and lay there dead. How easy to kill a man! But I did worry about it."

In 1899 he was appointed a lieutenant in the South African Light Horse Division when the Boer Republic was given an advance lesson in just what democracy? means. It may be recalled that the Boer War is known for giving rise to the first modern concentration camp. These camps were established, not by Germany, but by the British in the South African territory of the Boers. Those unfortunate Boer men and women who could not understand that killing, looting and oppression were merely part of the process of liberation were thus given time to think over what England means when it desires to free oppressed people.

Starving Women and Children

Let Mr. Churchill speak of this "adventure". To cope with all this, the British military authorties found it necessary to clear whole districts of their inhabitants and gather the population into concentration camps. As the railways were continually cut, it was difficult to supply these camps with all necessaries of life. Disease broke out and several thousands of women and children died." War to Churchill, according to his own words was "Jolly", "exilarating" and "delicious".

Mr. Churchill has done his part in giving democracy? to the Indians, Egyptians and Boers. Now Churchill as "the World's Greatest Statesman" according to two-faced, job-seeking, front-page set-'em-up Willkie, wants to spread his ideas of democracy throughout the world.

Our President, Secretary of State and Harold the Ike Ickes, have chosen this corrupt politician for a partner and fellow traveler.

The hard working common people are the backbone of every nation, but most nations are suffering from bad leadership.

Will Rogers Said It

Always writing with a salty tang, the late Will Rogers must have had a premonition about this strange business of a "first line of defense" which keeps bobbing up all over the Seven Seas and in all parts of all the continents.

Will Rogers said:

"I'm for self-defense; but if I go 3,000 miles to defend myself it shows I'm only looking for trouble."

When we go 8,000 miles to the Red Sea, and some 9,000 miles to Singapore, apparently we are on a treasure hunt for all kinds of grief. —Weekly Roll-Call.

Great Thoughts From Master Minds

Government ought to be as much open to improvement as anything which appertains to man, instead of which it has been monopolized from age to age, by the most ignorant and vicious of the human race. Need we any other proof of their wretched management, than the excess of debt and taxes with which every nation groans, and the quarrels into which they have precipitated the world?—Thomas Paine.

"Come with me," said Richard Cobden, as John Bright turned heart-stricken from a new-made grave. "There are in England women and children dying with hunger—with hunger made by the laws. Come with me, and we will not rest until we repeal those laws." In this spirit the freetrade movement waxed and grew, arousing an enthusiasm that no mere fiscal reform could have aroused.—Henry George.

All honor to the men who through the long night of Class Legislation and Special Privileges —while the heritage of the nation was being given away and public franchises were granted as if the private property of the legislators granting them, and Protective Tariffs were pouring their millions and their tens of billins into private pockets—dared stand up and proclaim the truth.—Lee Francis Lybarger.

Free trade between countries is the right principle, because it gives each country the command of the worlds' products so that it can specialize in those lines for which it is best suited and exchange them for the products which it is least able to produce. The protectionists tells you, however, that we pay for foreign goods in money. I tell you that we scarcely ever pay for foreign goods in money at the end of the transaction. We pay for foreign goods by sending them our boots and shoes, or iron and steel, or furniture, or hardware, or some other product in the manufacture of which we excel foreign countries. Foreign trade in the main is simply swapping goods for goods, and the goods which the protected manufacturer by tariffs keep out of our ports are simply goods which if they were admitted to our ports without duties would be paid for by your labour in the manufacture of other goods of trade therefore, and the amount and value of your labour would not thereby be decreased.—Franklin Pierce.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST SIDES IN WAR

From Boston, Massachussets comes the information that the "Mother Church" of the Christian Science sect has decided to follow in the footsteps of the other organized worshippers of the Golden Calf, by siding in this war with the International Bankers in the name of "democracy". At the annual meeting, recently held in Boston, the Christian Science Board of Directors called upon followers of the Mary Baker Eddy sect to ally this world-wide religious movement with the cause of "democracy everywhere". Referring to the aggressive forces in action today throughout the world the Directors pointed out that "history plainly teaches that when a nation chooses to ignore God and to make matter the foundation stone of its government," such nation commits its cause to failure, and at the same time provides the means for its ultimate defeat and undoing."

History plainly teaches that the British empire has made matter the foundation stone of its government in all its imperial policy of aggression and conquest. History plainly teaches that the Jewish nation, race and religion has made matter the foundation stone of its life and therefore has failed miserably as a nation, as a race and religious organization. History plainly teaches that every religious organization which makes matter the foundaton stone of its ambitions goes to HELL and that is where the Mother Church has landed. It has joined hands with the bloody exploits of the British-Jewish war for "democracy everywhere".

The avaricious directors of the Mother Church cannot distinguish between human, individual rights and the gold standard for which the present war is being waged. Both England and the International Bankers are running the U. S. A. ragged in the endeavor to save the shekels of the Bank of England for the Rothschild, Sassoon & Co. outfit, which they have "invested" everywhere in the world.

In taking this momentous step of definitely aligning itself with the International Bankers, whose interests were defended by the U. S. in the previous world war, as was so plainly stated by the late Vice-President Marshall shortly after peace had been agreed upon, the Mother Church has definitely stepped out of the realm of religion and science, and aligned itself with the despoilers of men's rights and possessions.

No Christian can be so blind, but must see that greed is at the bottom of the present struggle and not freedom, not rights. It is the notion that by brute force and treachery world rule can be established, that is behind this war. Ever since Amshel Mayer discovered how stupid the German people were who looked to force for the solution of their problems, that he hired Hessians for the English King and sent them to the States to fight the colonists. For this "service" to the King and the Hessian ruler the bloody Jew was knighted a baron while American blood of the colonists was shed to lay the foundation for the International Bankers who today rule and run the White House, the Capitol, the Treasury and the Supreme Court, in fine made this the Jewnited States of America. Gone is respect for solemn oaths of office; gone is respect for the Constitution; gone is patriotism for American rights and ideals; the nation is being bled white to protect the Jewish standard of doing business everywhere in the world and the Mother Church blesses the bloody mess.

Christians who follow Christ, not the greedy and shortsighted directors of the Mother Church; Christians who treat religion scientifically, know that the mission of the Savior was to instil FAITH in God and not in armed force. If HE takes care even of the sparrow, how could He neglect to take care of us, provided that we keep with FAITH with HIM and abide by His commandments. A nation which sends its conscientious objectors to the penitentiary for refusing to register under the unconstitutional draft law in times of peace, when no insurrection exists that would empower the government to draft men for its defense, such a nation is already choosing to ignore God and to make matter the foundation stone of its government. It puts its faith in blind force, rather than in God. And the Mother Church ignores God, too, and chooses to align itself with the International Jews who keep no oath and know not God.

The Church should have pointed out the iniquity of the whole conflict and should have quoted Mary Eddy's Miscellany on PEACE and WAR:

"A bullet in a man's heart never settles the question of his life. The mental animus goes on, and urges that the answer to the sublime question as to man's life shall come from God and that its adjustment shall be according to His laws. The characters and lives of men determine the peace, prosperity, and life of nations. Killing men is not consonant with the higher law whereby wrong and injustice are righted and exterminated."

That ought to hold the misleading Directors of the Mother Church for a spell. And further on in Miscellany we find in HOW STRIFE MAY BE STILLED:

"Peace is the promise and reward of rightness. Governments have no right to engraft into civilization the burlesque of uncivil economics. War is in itself an evil, barbarous, devilish. Victory in error is defeat in Truth. War is not in the domain of good; war weakens power and must finally fall, pierced by its own sword."

By endorsing war and victory of the British-Jewish combine, the Mother Church has defeated its own religion in Truth and no real Christian will follow blind leaders.

From the religious viewpoint, from the scientific viewpoint, from the Christian viewpoint both sides to the war are equally wrong. How, then, could any good result from either victory?

John 8, verses 31-59.

It is a felony in the U. S. A. to be a Christian and of draft age.

HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

Don't Give a Rap for Enemies!

U can't make a real success without real enemies.

U can't hold a strong position without strong opposition.

U can't seem right to any, if U don't seem wrong to many.

A useful life can't be entirely peaceful and carefree.

U must do your duty as U see it, but be tolerant.

Every earnest man in every generation has paid the price of individuality.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

The greater U are, the greater the penalty of your progress. The farther U go, the wider your range; the more U increase the points of contact with which U must reckon—hence, U multiply your battle against misconception and slander and malice.

In every sphere men gibe and sneer—the peace of the ditchdigger is threatened by the unemployed laborer who covets his job; the college professor is ostracized if he dare teach what he's not taught.

So long as U aspire, others will conspire—so long as U try, others will vie.

U will have hostility to face in every place and at every pace. But go straight ahead to your goal.

So long as your conscience isn't ashamed to acknowledge U as a friend, don't give a rap for your enemies!

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

The Mazdaznan Philosophy

Practice is the password that opens up the portals to the very secret chamber of Life and reveals the possibilities held out by the initiator before the altar. From the very anteroom of birth to that of the altar of knighthood each step is a practice which, in accordance to devotion, confidence and assurance, lifts man from out of a cold world of antiquity into the warmth of a circle of friendship.

And what does this practice consist of, you will ask. Before we shall give a definite answer we should like to know whether you have ever given the subject of the perpetuity of your own life a thought. You will, of course, immediately answer that the perpetuity of human life is dependent upon food. This is correct, but only in part, for if the perpetuity of life is food, then why should man not be able to live forever if he but continued to eat and drink? Food in part supplies the fuel, as it were, for the firing of tissue. But the building of the same is withheld by a power greater than that of matter—it is Breath.

Of what value would the best of mother's milk or attention by a world-renowned physician be to the newly born if that body was void of Breath?

If the child does not establish a breath independent of that of its mother—it is dead. It may, as far as appearances go, be perfectly formed and beautiful all the internal organs placed to perfection, but—there is no breath. Without breath there is no perpetuity of the thing, however well constructed otherwise. But as soon as that babe shall breathe it will accordingly seek the fuel required for the furtherance of processes conducive to growth. The more regular that breath the more rapidly will the food be assimiliated and used for developments. Any and every irregularity in the breath will make itself felt in the whole organism, and food partaken of suffer proper attention by the organs, and the functions thus weakened will be unable to perform their part.

A Lesson From The Irish

Two recent incidents in goings-on in Ireland proves that the Irish have been studying American history to good purpose: (1) The Free State people stubbornly refused to fall for the conscription propaganda that the Churchill statesmanship wanted to flim-flam Eire into accepting and Eire, together with the Free State minority in Ulster doggedly resisted making the people of Ulster subservient to draft boards. Churchill's reaction was that the attempt to enforce the draft in Ulster would be more bother than it was worth. (2) When a bomber that was either in truth a German one or disguised as German, bombed an Irish city with some 20 fatalities, the Irish just kept their heads and said that whether British or German, they would not accept the incident as a reason to join forces with Britain to help whip Germany.—Boise Valley Herald.

Patriotic and Other Organizations

Through the Red Cross, the Scout Movement, the Y. M. C.. A., the Church and other humane, religious and quasi-religious organizations, we have created an atmosphere of international effort which strengthens the idea of unity of the English-speaking world. In the co-ordination of this work, Mr. Raymond Fosdick, formerly of Rockefeller Foundation, has been especially conspicuous. I would also like to mention President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University, who has eloquently advocated this form of internationalism and carefully empasized its distinction from the false internationalism which is infecting the proletariat.

The Bar

The Overseas Club in this country now contains nearly a hundred thousand pledged members with a journal of their own. Our thanks are due to Lord Northcliffe for this enterprise. The Canadian Clubs and Society, the St. George's, St. David's, St. Andrew's and Pilgrim Clubs, together with the Daughters of the Empire, the Prince of Wales Fund, and the other associations and guilds connected with our multitudinous war charities, enable us to pervade all sections and classes of the country, and provide us with a force of Empire Builders whose loyalty and services are both invaluable to us and highly appreciated by the native colonists. English and Canadian born jurists are not as numerous as we would wish. Nevertheless, as the training of all was based on English Common Law, as we engaged only the most influential to do the necessary legal work of our bond issues, our purchasing, and our shipping and trade control, and as we denied blockade concessions except when dominant colonial lawyers pleaded for them, the bar as a whole has been actively in sympathy with us. Indeed, the respectable lawyers refused to defend Americans indicted for their opposition to us; and we were allowed to imprison without form, creatures such as Ghose and Agnes Smedley, who petitioned the President on behalf of Indian freedom. Our Attorney General Sir F. E. Smith, and our Lord Chief Justice, Lord Reading, were shown conspicuous courtesies by the Bar Association here; and after the visit of our Attorney General, prohibition was made law. The New York Times amply reported the courtesies shown by us to Mr. James M. Beck and other colonial luminaries whom we sent as Pilgrims from here to revisit the Motherland. Mr. Becks' condemnation of his fellow natives put him in a class by himself; so I recommended that he be made a Bencher of Gray's Inn, an "Honour" which he was the first since the fourteenth century to accept. The memoranda of Sir William Wiseman, Sir Geoffrey Butler, Commander Guy Gaunt, and Nathan, have disclosed to you our affiliations with the German Secret Service, or rather our identity with it.

Discard Aluminum Pots and Pans

(Over KGB, Tuesday, 8:30 pm, June 24, 1941)

I have invited Dr. Morton H. Disney, who for 8 years was a member of the California State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, to be my guest tonight. Doctor, I understand that the government is asking patriotic Americans to use as little aluminum as possible for their household needs because there is not enough of it for defense purposes. What would you advise us to do in such a case?

Dr. DISNEY—By all means get rid of your aluminum pots and pans. I would advise every patriotic American to donate his aluminum ware to he government for defense purposes and especially in defense of public health.

de ARYAN—What do you mean, "in defense of public health"?

Dr. DISNEY—I mean just that. By disposing of your aluminum cooking utensils you are serving two good purposes. First, it will release aluminum for the government's needs; second, and most important, you will be protecting your health by not bringing aluminum in contact with your food.

de ARYAN—Does aluminum spoil your food?

Dr. DISNEY— Yes, most all foods either cooked or allowed to stand in aluminum produce some type of aluminum salt which is injurious to the human body.

de ARYAN—Is it as bad as that?

Dr. DISNEY—Probably worse than most people realize. Even the chlorine in the city water readily unites with aluminum to form aluminum chloride. The aluminum not only impairs the natural flavor of coffee or tea but produces a very injurious irritant to the digestive system. It keeps the digestive tract in a constant state of irritation. You just try making coffee in aluminum and then use the same ingredients in glassware and see the difference in the appearance and also the taste.

de ARYAN—Does it also affect fruits and vegetables?

Dr. DISNEY—The cooking of any fruit containing any acid will remove the tarnish, or the dull appearance, produced by some previous food in the aluminum container. For example: If you cooked cabbage, onions or other sulphur containing vegetables, you will notice that the aluminum ware turns dark and dull. Now try cooking tomatoes, or berries or other acid fruits in that dull appearing container and it will absorb the residue of aluminum sulphide, and, then, the utensil will regain its bright appearance. Now the aluminum sulphide is ready to go into your stomach and make you dull and tarnished.

de ARYAN—Is aluminum sulphide a poison?

Dr. DISNEY—It is a slow irritant. It does not act like strychnine or arsenic, which act quickly, but it keeps your internal organs constantly inflamed. An inflamed system cannot possibly function normally and all food consumed is not properly digested. Just imagine, this process is repeated 3 times every day in the year. After consuming this insidious, slow poison for a period of time, you begin to feel sick and wonder why. You begin to imagine that you have heart trouble, arthritis, kidney and liver disturbances, while all this time you had nothing else but a case of slow aluminum poisoning.

de ARYAN—What is the remedy in such cases?

Dr. DISNEY— From my observation over many years of practice, I may state that many of my patients who have complained of various ailments, have made remarkable improvements after they stopped using aluminum utensils.

de ARYAN—What do you advise them to do with their aluminum?

Dr. DISNEY—By all means be patriotic and in self-defense, donate it to the government. The government needs it worse than you do.

de ARYAN—Thank you Dr. Disney, for your timely information on this important subject.

Navy Sells Aluminum to Junkmen

FRED—Daddy, we do not have aluminum cooking utensils, do we?

DADDY—No Fred, mother knows about the destructive properties of aluminum in its various chemical reactions when absorbed in the human body. We have no aluminum ware in our home to give away to the government. But it would not do much good, if we had.

FRED—What do you mean, Dad?

DAD—This morning at 11 o'clock, the U. S. Naval Air Station, right here in San Diego, opened bids on aluminum scrap belonging to the navy. It has invited the junkdealers to bid on the following material. I am quoting from the mimeographed sheets of the Navy. "Lot No. 1.—60 tons, grade No. 3 Aluminum Scrap; old sheet and utensils (pigs made from melting old sheet and mixed sheet clips).—Lot No. 2.—Grade No. 5 Aluminum Scrap; cast scrap and forged scrap, old and new. 10 tons.—Lot No. 3.—60 Ton, Aluminum Slag.—Delivery of material will be f.o.b. the purchaser's conveyance, at the Naval Air Station, San Diego, California. At the buyer's option, the Government will load material on railroad cars placed on Naval Station siding abreast the scrap yard."

FRED—What does this mean, daddy? Is the government not going to use its own scrap aluminum?

DAD—It means that anybody who wants it, may buy it and sell it again at a profit, or hold it for a profit.

FRED—Isn't that strange, I would expect the government to hold on to its aluminum supply instead of disposing of it to junk dealers.

DAD—Yes, Fred, there are many funny things happening nowadays in connection with this war. Just look around & see who the junk dealers are. I heard the remarks Joseph Scott made at the Hollywood Bowl last Friday night when he introduced Kathleen Norris, Lillian Gish, Senator D. Worth Clark of Idaho and Mr. and Mrs. Lindbergh. There is something funny about this war.

FRED—Tell us about it, dad. I wish I could have gone with you to see Col. Lindbergh.

DAD— Our San Diego delegation left at 4:20 on the Santa Fe train. The train was 20 minutes late in getting to Los Angeles and by the time we had transfered to our special bus which took us to Hollywood, Kathleen Norris had almost finished her address. Our group of America First made quite an impression when we filed in with placards, reading: "San Diego Cooperheads". Other signs read: "San Diego is with you, Lindy". Also, "San Diego says Its THEIR War, let them fight THEIR own war". And, "San Diego demands NO WAR, No Convoys". There was a special box section reserved for us and as soon as we sat down protographers started to swarm around us asking to wave our signs and they took our pictures.

FRED—How many people were there at the bowl?

DAD—The bowl holds 20,000. It was filled and the hills surounding it were packed with another 15,000 who were sitting on the ground. It was a specacle that reminded me of the Biblical incident when thousands gathered to listen to the Sermon on the Mount. Mr. Scott asked that the movable, huge searchlights be turned on the hills and you would not have believed your eyes to see such a huge overflow crowd on all three sides of the bowl. It was a most inspiring specacle. Then Mr. Scott informed the audience that the warmakers had hired several hundred people and disposed them all over the place with instructions to clap at the wrong time and to hiss at the wrong time so as to give the impression that the people were not in sympathy with Lindbergh and he asked the crowd whether they approved of such tactics. The roaring protest that filled the air was sufficient notice to the would be disturbers how the people felt about them, for they never let out a single peep during the whole evening.

FRED—What did Lillian Gish say?

DAD—Lillian Gish recounted how she and others had been hired in the last war to go to England and play phony parts in propaganda pictures depicting the Germans as inhuman brutes who cut the hands off little children and tortured old men. She said she was well paid to play her part in those phony pictures, but that she has learned since how criminal it is to distort the truth in order to spread hatred. So now she is exposing the methods which the warmakers used to drag this country into war. She said that it was her patriotic duty to tell the truth to the people and warn them.

FRED—Did you like Lindbergh's speech?

DAD—Yes, I liked it very much. The audience rose and cheered for several minutes so there was no doubt how the people feel about Lindbergh, even though the polls in some of their reports do not give a true picture of popular sentiment regarding the war, and bundles for England. To stand there in the midst of 35,000 people cheering for their hero, is a revelation that does your heart good and gives you new faith in the sanity of the American people. All through his speech, it was not so much what Lindbergh said, as the fact that he dared say it in a war mad world and break the spell of insanity with his lucid exposition of the truth. He pointed out how simple his own task is by merely presenting the truth, while the war makers have a hard task attempting to keep the truth away from the people and distort facts, incidents, misrepresent motives and pervert our sympathies. He said that time works with the peace element in America, because as time goes on more and more of the truth comes out and helps awaken the people to the realization of who their true friends are. Here is a copy of what he said, Freddy, you may read it. Go ahead, read it out loud.

FRED—Do I have to say, quote?

DAD—Yes, Fred, whenever you quote something over the radio preface it with the word quote, and close it with unquote.

FRED—"We who oppose America's entrance into this war have one great advantage over the interventionists . . . We fight with the blade of truth as our greatest weapon. They use the bludgeon of propaganda. We ask you to study our statements since this war began. They dare not ask you to study theirs." Daddy, they don't dare ask us to study theirs, do they?

DAD—They always said that they want to keep us out of war and now they cannot twist it around to tell us that we should go to war. But you read some of the other things Lindy said.

FRED—"Some day, in the not distant future, the men who are responsible for this will be called to account by an aroused and enlightened nation. The attempt to involve our country in war by subterfuge and propaganda is not a crime to be passed over lightly."

DAD—You see, Fred, since Lindbergh and Senator Nye exposed the ridiculous claims of the interventionists that Hitler is going to come over here and invade the U. S., the truth has been revealed about the military impossibility of such an invasion just as Lindbergh said in the first place. It's getting late, you have just enough time left to play your harmonica. What will it be tonight?

FRED—I'll play DIXIE.

DAD—Allright, go ahead.

FRED—(Harmonica).

Lindbergh will be heard over K G B Tuesday 8:30 pm. "de Aryan Comments" has been transfered to Wednesday 7:15 pm, this week only. Next week at its regular hour of Tuesday 8:30 pm.

All-Day Parking by Bookies Charged

Police traffic officers deliberately are ignoring bookmakers' cars which he said are parked downtown all day in violation of one-hour parking restrictions, C. Leon de Aryan, weekly newspaper publisher, charged.

"Did you ever make a bet?" asked Councilman Al Flowers.

"No, but I'm not blind," de Aryan replied.

Asked for comment after the council meeting, Walter Cooper, city manager, said he had none.

"But I heard what de Aryan had to say," Cooper asserted.

By unanimous vote, the council filed a letter from de Aryan in which he asked that the manager be directed to make a survey to determine how many city employes belong to a union, who they are, and whether there are sufficient trained men to fill their positions in an emergency.

Street Bookies Target of Police

War on sidewalk bookmakers was declared by police and the district attorney's office when complaints were issued against Max Wilson, charging him with accepting a bet on the sidewalk at Fourth ave. and E st., and charging Allen Connell with placing a bet with Wilson.

The men were arraigned on the felony complaints before Municipal Judge Dean Sherry, who set preliminary hearing for July 9 and released each of the men under $50 bond.

Police visits to various places that had been suspected bookmaking establishments several months ago forced bookmakers to the sidewalks to transact their business, according to word in police circles. "Salesmen" either worked directly on the sidewalk or in automobiles parked at the curb, it was said.

Thomas Whelan, district attorney, said when the complaints were issued by his office that he hoped police would continue the practice of arresting both those suspected of accepting bets and those suspected of placing them. He said police could be assured of the complete cooperation of his office.

Don't Feed The Fire

Subscriptions to all magazines and newspapers that continue to cry for war should be immediately cancelled, and the editor of these shameless sheets should be told in a stiff letter exactly why such action is taken.

Since they are without conscience, their cash register is their only vulnerable spot. Hit them hard right in the middle of it. It goes without saying that the publications that are fighting Your battle should have your undivided support and to the very limit of your ability.——Publicity.

WIN A WAR WITHOUT BLOODSHED !

Should America's more than 120 million who are opposed to involement all take such action the prospects for war would collapse like a punctured toy balloon! Every publication owned or underwritten by the International Money Changers would fold up and quit, the people would demonstrate their power—and WIN ONE WAR WITHOUT BLOODSHED!

Why Not "DO IT NOW?"

Humanitarian Britishers

THE MESSENGER, National Organ of the Evangelical and Reformed Church: "The disposition of the British Government to frown upon every proposal of Mr. Hoover and his committee, on the plan to feed the people of the small democracies of Europe, is not meeting with much favor in America. In fact the sentiment in this country in favor of this humanitarian effort is growing, even though the Administration has given no evidence of sympathy . . . Is it not tragic that the two professedly most human and democratic Governments on earth, Great Britain and the United States, appear now to stand side by side in a position which robs so many thousands of little children of milk and condemns so many to absolute starvation?"

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God."—Benjamin Fraklin.
